

From the Council

May 7, 2024

Willy Lin
Chairman

Container capacity constraint will linger

Disruption to Red Sea container shipping is rising. Maersk estimated an industry wide capacity loss of 15-20% on the routes between Asia-Europe in Q2. Shippers should be aware that capacity constraint will linger. Shipping lines should add capacity to the trade.

Link for reference :

<https://www.reuters.com/business/red-sea-disruption-cuts-q2-capacity-by-15-20-maersk-says-2024-05-06/>