

From the Council

June 5, 2024

Willy Lin
Chairman

IATA Director General states optimism on HK aviation

IATA Director General Willie Walsh reiterated his optimism that Hong Kong's aviation sector has recovered faster and stronger than expected, particularly in terms of cargo volumes, which are believed to be fully back to pre-pandemic levels by the end of the year at the earliest.

Link for reference :

<http://www.aastocks.com/en/stocks/news/aafn-news/NOW.1354414/2>